DEAR ..... MP,

I urge you to write to the Prime Minister on Yemen.

Since 2015, the women, men and children living in Yemen have been in the crossfire of ongoing conflict. A country already suffering extreme poverty is being pushed further towards its limits. Yemen remains the worst humanitarian crisis in the world. 80% of the population need aid and protection and 10 million people are one step away from famine.

This is a political crisis with humanitarian consequences. The UK has an important leadership role to play in helping to resolve the conflict.

The Government continues to fuel the conflict by selling arms to a coalition led by Saudi Arabia. To end the suffering, Prime Minister Truss must:

- Immediately suspend all arms sales and military support to Saudi Arabia
- Call for a nationwide ceasefire and an inclusive peace process that puts women at the forefront
- Help ensure humanitarian aid can get in

Yemen can't wait.

I urge you to write to the Prime Minister on Yemen.
